

195 scholarships totaling more than $650,000 were awarded to students around the world.

1. Evangelical Methodist Church Argentina. Community initiatives during COVID-19 to empower women by creating income-generating opportunities through the sale of food and the construction of a cistern tank to promote access to water. Buenos Aires, Argentina
2. Iglesia Evangélica Metodista en Bolivia. Support for women's coordinator. La Paz, Bolivia
3. Centro Popular para América Latina de Comunicación (CEPALC). Support for indigenous Zenú women's micro-enterprise project to produce caña flecha (palm thread) and handicrafts to market in Colombian cities. Training Zenú youth on overcoming stereotypes, economic rights and administration, planning, marketing and commercialization of micro-business products. Bogotá, Colombia
4. Iglesia Colombiana Metodista, Clinton Rabb Clinic. Promoting mental and physical health of women, children and youth during COVID-19 crisis focusing on health promotion and prevention and prioritizing human rights. Córdoba, Colombia
5. Iglesia Evangélica Metodista Unida del Ecuador. Economic recovery for women's small businesses and health promotion due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Faith development, personal and community development and economic development programs with women in 24 churches and communities, especially in rural indigenous towns and impoverished neighborhoods in the cities. Quito, Ecuador
6. World Federation of Methodist and Uniting Church Women. Support for Bossey Scholarship. Guyana

No single location for map

- Regional Missionary Andrea Reily Rocha Soares, Latin America. Support and promotion of leadership for Methodist women, identifying issues and concerns of gender and gender equity, fostering women's empowerment in church and community and income security and education for the uprooted and marginalized.
- 4 scholarships to students in Bolivia and Ecuador.

Mission outreach in South America

*Map not drawn to scale.